Parish News and Information

On 7 October we will be having a Parish leadership day, the second of two days to think about where we are going as a parish and how we will get there. The first day took place in March 2020, just before lockdown! So much has shifted since then in our world and in our parish.

As we emerge from the Covid storm and changes we are at a point of needing to re-evaluate who we are as Gods people in this amazing part of the world, where we are going, how we will get there; refresh our vision and purpose and our part to play in the journey here. There is a real sense that God is at work among us and it is important we recognise where he is leading us next! Therefore, please pray about our next steps as a church and pray about your part in the church here, and also pray how we all might better love and serve God day to day wherever God has placed us and support one another living out our faith as Gods people Monday to Saturday as well as Sunday. Its an important junction in our journey together.
God Bless

Rev d David Treharne
