

"where the river flows everything will live"

Weekly Parish Briefing Sunday 5 September 2021

As we move into September there is still a degree of Covid uncertainty, however Sunday worship, baptisms and weddings are happening and our weekly Life Groups are meeting. We continue to take precautions with Covid as we gather to ensure that people are as safe as possible.

Despite ongoing challenges, I am very excited about the future here in the Parish. There is a sense that God is doing something amongst us and I very much look forward to us journeying together 'living life in the flow of God's love.' For anyone that is new in the community/church we want to welcome you and we would be delighted to meet up and get to know you. We extend a particular welcome to Emma Durbin in her new role as our Children, Youth and Families Missioner!

The Lord bless you and keep you

David
